CREATIVE CULTURAL CONNECTIONS

INDIGENOUS RECREATION/ART THERAPY CAMP

This experiential summer camp opportunity is led by a certified Indigenous Recreational Therapist and MCFN Band Member. This camp will bring students on a journey of self-discovery, through blending Indigenous world views within an engaging summer camp experience.

'ARTIC "SUMMER" GAMES

Participate in a series of challenges, and compete against your peers to achieve your personal best! Through these Arctic Summer Games, students will join us in creatively celebrating Indigenous sports, social interaction and culture.

INDIGENOUS GAMES 2020

CREE ARTS & CRAFTS

This interactive workshop will engage students in the cultural art and craft of making dream catchers, while exploring Cree culture from the perspective of the daughter of a Residential School Survivor, and an active Band Member from the Cree Nation of Waswanipi.

INDIGENOUS ARTS, SPORTS, & CULTURES CAMP

Discover and explore creative arts, culture, games, and activities, led by Rising Stars Indigenous staff and First Nation community members and partners. Students will make native crafts, play indigenous games, be entertained through traditional storytelling, cultural performances, and much more.

ACTIVE CULTURES & CONNECTIONS

This camp will engage primary students in a series of fun activities and challenges designed to develop FUNDamental movement skills and physical literacy through promoting the respectful blending of Indigenous world views with conventional approaches to Physical Education.
